

China Arbitration Day 2011
20 May 2011

China Arbitration Day 2011

Trade, Transportation and Arbitration

Arranged by:

CEAC & CIETAC

Supporters:

Handelskammer Hamburg & OAV

Partner:

Hamburg Bar (HRAK)

Background:

Disputes in international trade and in transportation between China, Europe and other parts of the world cannot always be avoided or settled amicably. In such situations, arbitration is the only advisable type of dispute resolution. It is therefore highly appreciated by Chinese and foreign parties. The seminar highlights the available options for arbitration. Jointly arranged by the Chinese European Arbitration Centre (CEAC) and the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC) it will provide an overview about arbitration at these institutions and at the China Maritime Arbitration Commission (CMAC) and the German Maritime Arbitration Association (GMAA). Moreover, it will provide the participants with practical advice and experience on how to handle China related international arbitration in trade and on transportation in separate workshops.

Target Group:

Merchants of SMEs, In-house Counsel, Solicitors, Barristers, Attorneys, Academics

Place & Date:

Hamburg Chamber of Commerce
Plenary Hall
Adolphsplatz 1
20457 Hamburg
Germany

20 May 2011
